

The Green House Agile Learner Agreement

Being an Agile Learner at the Green House comes with the following benefits, (including but not limited to):

- Being part of a safe, nurturing and fun community with supportive facilitators and children of mixed ages.
- Being able to come to the Green House ALC and use the beautiful space for exploration, learning and having fun.
- Time, space, and support to follow your own interests and passions.
- The opportunity to take part in offerings/adventures/workshops offered at the Green House ALC and off-site.
- The opportunity to offer offerings/adventures/workshops at the Green House ALC and off-site.
- The ability to speak about and make decisions about your learning.

In order to be an Agile Learner at The Green House ALC, I agree to contribute to the community in the following ways:

- Show respect and care for myself, other people, creatures and the space.
- Play an active part in making the Green House a fun, happy, safe, and supportive community.
- Actively take part in opening and closing circles. Concentrating, being focused, sharing my heart/feelings, and listening to others.
- Cleaning up after myself and working with others to clean up at the afternoon clean up time.
- Listening to and keeping community agreements (which are put in place from “Change-up” meetings). Attendance at change-up meetings.
- Using our physical resources (furniture, art supplies, paper, computers, etc.) with care, responsibility and consideration.
